vs.)	OPINION & ORDER

Lexington County, and) Lexington County Food Service Providers,) Defendants.)
)

This matter is before the court with the Report and Recommendation of United States Magistrate Judge Bruce Howe Hendricks, made in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) (2006) and Local Civil Rule 73.02 of the District of South Carolina.¹ David D. Johnson (“Johnson”), a state prisoner proceeding pro se, brought an action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 alleging various violations to his civil rights. To state a claim for relief under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, Johnson must sufficiently allege that he was injured by “the deprivation of any [of his] rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and laws” by a “person” acting “under color of state law.” In her Report and Recommendation, Magistrate Judge Hendricks recommends dismissing the complaint without prejudice and without issuance and service of process because the defendants are not proper. (Report and Recommendation, generally.)

¹ The recommendation has no presumptive weight, and the responsibility for making a final determination remains with the United States District Court. See Mathews v. Weber, 423 U.S. 261, 270 (1976). The court is charged with making a de novo determination of those portions of the Report and Recommendation to which specific objection is made. The court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the recommendation made by the magistrate judge or recommit the matter with instructions. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) (2006).

Johnson filed objections to the Report and Recommendation identifying James Metts, and Trinity Food Service as the proper defendants in this case. The court construes Johnson's objection as a request to amend his complaint and grants this request. The court dismisses Lexington County and Lexington County Food Service Providers as defendants in this action. The court adopts Magistrate Judge Hendricks' Report and Recommendation to the extent it is consistent with this opinion.

Therefore, it is ORDERED that the complaint is dismissed without prejudice and without issuance and service of process as to Lexington County and Lexington County Food Service Providers only. It is further ORDERED that Johnson's request to amend his complaint to add James Metts and Trinity Food Service as defendants is granted and this case is remanded to the magistrate judge for further consideration.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
